

Robert D. Neary Award For Dedicated Service to Church, Community, Family, or the Knights of Columbus

In 1998, the Virginia Knights of Columbus Charities, Inc., established an award in the name of Past State Deputy Robert D. Neary. The award is provided through $500.00 donations from Councils and Assemblies to recognize special members and individuals or organizations. The Knights, individuals, or organizations to be recognized must have made a substantial long-term service commitment to their Church, Community, Family, or the Knights of Columbus. Nominations may be made at any time of the year.
